TIPS & BEST PRACTICES

From September 15 to March 31, access to Brocéliande Forest, which is largely privately owned, is regulated due to hunting and forestry operations. Visitors may still explore the forest by staying on designated trails and observing specific access restrictions on hunting days.
Scan the QR code for practical information and the hunting calendar.

Mushroom picking:
Permitted in state-owned forests only, except on Tuesdays and Thursdays throughout the year. Maximum: 5 litres per person per day. If in doubt, have your mushrooms checked by a pharmacist.

Before your visit:
Opening periods for attractions and activities may vary. Please check before travelling.
